

Co-sponsored by: The Postcolonial, Race, and Diaspora Studies Colloquium- NYU English Department; South Asia NYU; and Asian/Pacific/American Institute NYU.

Award-winning author and scholar, Meena Alexander will read from her recently published collection of poetry Atmospheric Embroidery, a haunting collection of poems that “travels through zones of violence to reach the crystalline depth of words”, and discuss Name Me a Word: Indian Writers Reflect on Writing, an anthology which brings together the voices of twentieth- and twenty-first century writers from India and the diaspora.

Meena Alexander, in conversation with Prof. Rajeswari Sunder Rajan

With discussants, Julia Claire Catalano and Rajgopal Saikumar

Meena Alexander is Distinguished Professor of English, CUNY
